Transforming Primary Healthcare in Nigeria

One small step for PSHAN, one giant leap for Nigerian healthcare.

We are proud to announce that we have successfully launched the pre-pilot phase of our frontline initiative, the Adopt-A-Healthcare-Facility Programme (ADHFP).

Through ADHFP, we aim to raise awareness and understanding of the current state of primary healthcare centres in Nigeria and the difference this initiative will make in the lives of everyday Nigerians.

PSHAN Officially Launches ADHFP

Delivering equitable, accessible, affordable, and quality healthcare.

Join us as we take yet another bold step towards building a Nigeria where everyone has equitable access to quality and affordable healthcare. PSHAN is proud to announce the official launch of the Adopt-A-Healthcare-Facility Programme (ADHFP).

Primary Healthcare Centres: The Key to a Brighter Future for Nigeria

Health is a fundamental human right; every Nigerian, irrespective of location or background, has the right to quality healthcare.

To understand the challenges we face in our healthcare system, we need to examine them through the lens of equality. Our healthcare system needs to be accessible, affordable, and world-class - that is why primary healthcare is critical. It is the bedrock of any prosperous nation.

Under the Microscope: Tackling Malnutrition in Nigeria

Imagine an Africa whose people are healthier, better educated, and empowered.

Picture a generation of African children equipped with the tools they need to change the world in their unique way. What could that possibly look like?

The effects of poverty are felt most keenly by children. According to UNICEF, one in three Nigerian children suffers from stunted growth due to malnutrition - which means they may never fully reach their potential...

Fixing Africa's healthcare problems, one Primary Healthcare Centre (PHC) at a time.

We envision a Nigeria where every child, adult, and elder can walk into a primary healthcare facility and know they will receive world-class healthcare. And we believe ADHFP is the key to making this a reality.
